

P. MOSER SUCCUMBS TO ILLNESS

Pioneer Contractor and Former Alderman Called by Death This Morning; Funeral Will Take Place Next Tuesday.

Peter Moser, Sr., a resident of Hammond during the past thirty-six years and at one time alderman of the Second ward, died at the family residence at 79 Sibley street this morning at 3 o'clock. His death was due to diabetes, with which he suffered for nearly two years, although it confined him to his bed for only two weeks.

The funeral will be held from St. Joseph's church Tuesday morning, where the Rev. Father Plaster will officiate at 8 o'clock. A requiem high mass will be said and interment will be made at the St. Joseph cemetery.

Although Mr. Moser has been ailing for nearly two years, he was able to be up and around until the past two weeks, when he was confined to his bed. At times he showed improvement, but Friday he suffered a relapse and passed away this morning at 3 o'clock.

Leaves Many Friends.
Mr. Moser is one of Hammond's pioneer citizens, having settled here in 1876. He became prominently known during his residence here, having built up a large contracting business and acquired a large circle of friends. For two terms he served as alderman of the Second ward, in which capacity he took much interest and did much for the improvement of the ward and city in general. He was born in Germany, and next week he would have been 72 years old.

He was a member of the Central Verein and the St. Joseph's society in his churches.

Besides a wife, he is survived by nine children—five daughters and four sons. The children are: Agnes, Florence and Mrs. H. G. Stevens, Hammond; Mrs. A. Schaefer, Montana; and Sister M. Barbara, Indianapolis; John Moser, Kalamazoo, Mich.; Peter Moser, Jr., Whiting; Matthew and Nicholas of Hammond.

MAYBE HE'S STARTING A JIHAD

(Special to THE TIMES)
Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 15.—A man who says he is Col. Timothy W. Englehart of Gary, where he states he is an alderman, created a furore at a reception at the Elks' club here last night when he appeared garbed in a full dress suit of golden brown, a cross between a Scandinavian sunset and a jug of hard cider in the candle light. He says that brown is the prevailing fashion in Gary.

The Gary colonel-alderman left Memphis this morning for home. He was followed to the depot by a large delegation of citizens in carriages and on foot, to say nothing of a bevy of pretty southern school girls.

If you smoke a La Vendo once you will always call for them.—Adv.

SPAIN'S LOVLIES CHARMS GOTHAMITES

Senora Josefina Ferrada.

When Senora Josefina Ferrada arrived in New York the other day on a Spanish steamer from Cadiz, her reputation of being the loveliest woman in all Spain didn't seem a bit exaggerated in the halo of adoring glances that surrounded her as she tripped down the gangplank.

Although a native of Spain, Senora Ferrada is now a resident of Cuba, having married one of the wealthiest planters of the island republic. She is just returning from a six months visit at her old home in Madrid.

PROSECUTION THINKS TESTIMONY OF SHAPIRO ALONE SUFFICIENT TO CONVICT FOUR GUNMEN ACCUSED OF HAVING SHOT HERMAN ROSENTHAL, THE NEW YORK GAMBLER.

New York gunmen sketched in court. Left to right: "Dago" Frank, "Whitely Lewis," "Lefty Louie" and "Gyp the Blood."

DIRECTORS WILL MEET IN THE EAST

Determination of Baldwin Locomotive Co.'s Directorate Will Be Awaited With Anxiety by Many Real Estate Owners.

The directors of the Baldwin Locomotive Works are supposed to have met yesterday and the directors of the Northwestern Iron Company are said to be in session today to take up important matters concerning the future operations of the respective companies in the Calumet region today.

One of the engineers representing the Schlesinger interests was in Hammond yesterday looking over the situation. Following the exclusive announcement in THE TIMES a few days ago that the East Chicago company had let the contract for 3,700 feet of dockage, it is understood that the Northwestern Iron Company is considering the matter of the construction of a concrete dock from Whiteoak avenue, the boundary between Hammond and East Chicago, and Calumet avenue in Hammond.

This will be the first step, it is said, in the plans to prepare the site for its first buildings. After the concrete dock is built it is understood that all of the dredgings from the turning basin that is to be constructed in Lake George will be put behind the dock for the purpose of reclaiming the land.

It is this space between Whiteoak avenue and Calumet avenue that is to form the receiving docks where the ore will be brought in from the great Superior ore ranges by large vessels and converted into steel.

The rest of the plant will lie south of this point, between these two streets. It is understood that work is to begin at once on the ore docks and storage bins. Next spring it is expected that some of the first buildings will be erected.

What action the directors of the Baldwin Locomotive Works took at the meeting yesterday will be awaited with interest. It is believed that a canvas of the business situation will be made and that this will determine whether or not they will go ahead.

ADDRESSES CONVENTION

Miss Virginia Brooks yesterday addressed the State Sunday School Federation of Michigan, which was in session at Lansing. Of late she has been in much demand as a speaker to address large gatherings and conventions. She was accompanied yesterday by her mother.

MEASLES IN WEST HAMMOND

Fearing a spread of the measles in West Hammond, of which there are now thirty cases in the public school, the board of education last night took steps to have all the school rooms fumigated.

The work was carried out today, and it is hoped that this will check the disease so that it will not become necessary to close down the schools.

Honeymoon Trail.

One of the biggest successes ever produced at the LaSalle theatre, Chicago, will be seen in this city at the Orpheum theatre, starting next Thursday matinee.

Of all the musical comedy successes "Honeymoon Trail" is the greatest laughing show of them all—it may not have as much plot as some shows, but who cares for a plot when they can laugh.

In the cast of "Honeymoon Trail" is: Al Raub, who succeeded Joseph Howard in the "Goddess of Liberty"; William Kent, for the past five seasons with Charles Frohman; Carl George, who originated the part he now plays; Helen Butler, Louis Greenwood, Charles Barry, George Robertson, Margaret Clark and a chorus of sixteen, selected from the original LaSalle chorus.

LANSING FARMER DIES UNDER WHEELS

John Decker, a well-known resident of Lansing, Ill., was instantly killed yesterday afternoon when he was run down by a Pennsylvania switch engine. Decker was in Lansing on business and was walking down the Pennsylvania track when the switch engine backed down upon him, throwing his body beneath the wheels. His body was badly mangled and evidently death was instantaneous.

Undertaker Emmerling was called and the remains were taken to his home, where funeral arrangements are being made.

Decker was a well-known farmer living near Lansing and is survived by a wife and children.

ARREST FORMER WEST HAMMOND WOMAN

Julia Pinter Taken by Federal Officers in South Bend.

South Bend, Ind., Nov. 15.—Julia Pinter, arrested at the home of 6324 Vargo, 320 South Chapin street, on a warrant issued by the United States bureau of immigration, was taken to Chicago today by A. Root, United States deputy marshal. She is charged with violation of the United States immigration laws by being a woman without moral. The Pinter woman will be tried before Inspector P. L. Prentice of the bureau of immigration in Chicago.

She was arrested last night and today Vargo, in whose home she was employed, filed habeas corpus proceedings in the circuit court against Chief of Police Guy L. Dunbar and Anna L. Anderson, matron of the county jail. Later the proceedings were dismissed by Kitch & Scallion, attorneys for Vargo and the Pinter woman.

It is said that the defendant in the federal action was a depraved woman before coming to this country from Austria, six years ago. Coming to the United States it is alleged she entered a resort in West Hammond and later became the proprietress of a resort in Aurora, Ill.

PROSPECTS STIMULATE REAL ESTATE

The real estate market in Hammond has been quiet for the past week. But few sales have been made, although there is a great deal of inquiry. The prospect of the announcement of building operations by the Northwestern Iron company or the Baldwin Locomotive works is making an active market.

Interest in Forsyth avenue in East Chicago is growing at a rapid pace. The street is practically owned by Hammond people and they think so well of it that they are getting their friends in.

E. N. Rummel of Hammond has purchased two lots between 148th and 149th streets. The purchase was made through J. S. Blackmun & Co.

The J. S. Blackmun Co. also announces the sale of a house and lot at 119 Williams street to Helen M. Hartley. Real estate activity is expected to be only nominal this winter.

Officer Takes Him Back.

Officer Radmacher of the Indianapolis police department was in Hammond this morning, making arrangements to take John Paski, alleged thief and ex-convict back to the state capital. Paski was arrested by the Hammond police at East Hammond Thursday night on a warrant sworn out by Indianapolis police, where he is wanted for robbing a woman of $100. Paski has served time in the state reformatory for stealing brass five years ago, when he was also arrested by the Hammond police.

Bantam Krug to Fight.

Willie Krug, the Hammond bantamweight, and "Dummy" Schenck will face each other in an eight-round wind-up in a southern ring Monday night. Reports coming from Krug's manager shows that he is fast climbing into the ranks of the topnotchers and is making an invincible record for himself. This will be welcome news for his wide circle of friends in Hammond.

ALL HANDS BACK AT STANDARD MONDAY

Repairs and reconstruction work in the Standard Steel Car plant power house, which was partially wrecked by fire last week, have been going on with such rapidity that the management today felt confident that work could be resumed on Monday with every working again.

It was a gigantic task that was undertaken to rehabilitate the power plant in less time than a week, but with the assistance that the Northern Indiana Gas & Electric company was able to give, and the Standard's own ability to surmount difficulties, the prospects today looked exceedingly bright. The new machinery that had to be ordered has arrived and is being put in place.

GARY MAN IS AFTER CONSULATE

First Federal Job Sought From This Section of the State Is From Gary.

Dr. F. W. Wilson, seventh avenue and Broadway, known to the foreigners of Gary as Dr. Wilsonski, a former Blackfoot county man and a Hoosier democrat of forty years' standing, expects to land a fat job under the Wilson administration.

Dr. Wilson of Gary would like to have Dr. Wilson of Seagriff name him as the next minister plenipotentiary to Greece. However, a consular generalship to one of the Balkan states would do as well. Leading Gary democrats are assisting Dr. Wilson in his efforts to land the Athenian embassy.

ALLEGED WIFE DESERTER ARRESTED

Otto R. Truax, wanted at Hansen, Mich., on a charge of deserting his wife and children, was arrested by Officers Bunde and Elmsle at the Straube piano factory yesterday afternoon on a warrant sworn out by Valparaiso county authorities. Word reached Chief Austen yesterday that Truax could be found at the Straube piano factory, where he has been employed during the past three weeks. He will be taken back by Sheriff S. R. Beattie some time today.

WANT SECOND PAPERS.

Charles Surprise is at work on a list of applicants for second papers. There are a few applicants for first papers still coming in, but most of the applicants are those who want to get their applications for second papers on file before Jan. 1.

SHE'LL BE "FIRST LADY" OF MICHIGAN

Mrs. Woodridge N. Ferris.

Mrs. Woodridge N. Ferris will be the "first lady" of Michigan after January 1 next, for at the recent election her husband, who is a Democrat, was elected governor of the state and will assume his official duties the first of the year. She is known in her home town of Big Rapids as a most lovable woman and has been a great help to Mr. Ferris, who is a college president.

FRED THOUGHT HE HAD LIVE ONE

Lord Turned Out to Be Just a Common, Ordinary Proofreader.

(Special to THE TIMES)
Crown Point, Ind., Nov. 15.—For a day Douglas Bandfield, proofreader on the Barrel and Box, a trade paper in Chicago, was heralded as an English lord. He was "Lord Bandfield" yesterday. Today he is just plain "Mr. Bandfield."

The story begins two years ago, when Mrs. Alice N. Penney, 3702 Lake avenue, started living apart from her husband. About the same time Mr. Bandfield started to board at her home. A few weeks ago Mrs. Penney was granted a divorce. Mr. Bandfield and Mrs. Penney went to Crown Point yesterday and were married.

They were Mr. Fred. But the associates of Mr. Bandfield believed it would be best to let Crown Point know the two were coming. So they wrote this to Fred Wheeler, a newspaper correspondent there:

"Dear Sir: A good little romance will develop in Crown Point on Friday when Lord Douglas Bandfield and Mrs. Penney will come there to be married. Lord Bandfield is a lieutenant in the British army traveling in this country. He was taken ill at the Auditorium hotel in Chicago and met Mrs. Penney, a very wealthy woman, who cared for him tenderly while he was ill. She nursed him back to health and he fell in love with her. The divorce followed, and on account of objections by her parents they are going to Crown Point quietly for the ceremony. Yours truly, "GEORGE BOWEN."

SHOOT AT ESCAPING PRISONER

Death nearly resulted to one policeman and several others in the streets of Gary last night when Ralph Cole, son of W. L. Cole of Tollestien, arrested on a forged charge, broke away from the police patrol at the city hall shortly after 11 o'clock. Cole was arrested at the instance of his father, the Tollestien lawyer, and he was picked up in the "bathtub."

Just as the patrol neared the city hall young Cole, who is 19 years old, got away from the police and started running down Broadway. His father and five cops followed.

Three Lives in Peril.
As young Cole and his pursuers neared Eighth avenue the shooting began. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W. S. Pauls was summoned. Cole insisted that his son had been shot, but the physician declared different. Finally upon the instance of the father Dr. Pauls gave the youth a hypodermic stimulant. Later the boy was released.

An investigation is being made today into the shooting, as more than one life might have been lost when somebody lost his head and started shooting. The elder Cole today is grateful that last night's affair was not turned into a tragedy.

When he reached the Orpheum theatre young Cole dropped to the sidewalk and his father thought he was dead. The almost insensible youth was hurried back to police headquarters and Dr. W.